

REMARKS

This application is a divisional application responsive to the Examiner's Restriction Requirement stated in his Office Action dated November 4, 2003 in parent application Serial No. 09/732,382, filed December 7, 2000. The claims in this application are directed to methods for cleaning an internal combustion engine, none of which are anticipated or made obvious by the patents cited in the final Office Action, dated February 7, 2003, in the parent application. It is respectfully requested that the above amendments be entered and that the amended claims be examined. A Notice of Allowability is respectfully solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
